Directions:

from the south (Dorchester A37)

Take the A37 Yeovil road and leave at the Chetnole exit (also signed towards The Chetnole Inn). Follow the road through Stockwood hamlet, over the railway bridge into Chetnole. Turn left at the T-junction and after a couple of hundred yards, turn right at the church and pass by the Chetnole Inn. Keep on the road to Leigh – it twists and turns. When you get some way into Leigh, you should see the village hall on your right. If you miss it, get to the old stone cross, turn around and the village hall will then be on your left after 200 yards from the west (via Yeovil A37)

Leave the A303 at the Cartgate roundabout onto the A3088. Go straight on at the first set of traffic lights, then turn right at the second set of traffic lights. At the roundabout at the top of the hill, bear left. At the next roundabout, turn right onto the A37 Dorchester road and leave at the Ryme Intrinsic / Yetminster exit after about 3 miles. After 200 metres, turn left just before the petrol station and proceed through Ryme Intrinsic. Turn left at the T-junction and then immediately right. Go all the way through Yetminster. When in open countryside, ignore the fork to the left, and proceed to Leigh. When you arrive at the centre of the village, turn right at the old stone cross towards Chetnole. The village hall will then be on your left after 200 yards.

from the north (via Sherborne A352)

From the A30 at the west end of Sherborne, follow signs for the A352 to Dorchester. About 2 miles south of Sherborne, take the right turn just after the 30mph signs, signposted for Leigh, Leweston and Chetnole. Keep on the road towards Leigh for about 3 miles, then turn right at the T-junction towards the 30mph signs. Follow down the hill, over the small bridge, up the hill, and turn left at the old stone cross towards Chetnole. The village hall will then be on your left after 200 yards
