

Not an HRGB Member?

HRGB membership is just £12 per year.* By becoming a member you will pay less to attend future events, get two South West Newsletters and two copies of Reverberations each year and get access to online information, music and product discounts. If you join at this event, we will refund the difference paid between the members and non-member rate above. Chat to any Committee Member who is there.

*The membership year starts on 1st January; if you are joining after 1st July in any year, you can elect to pay £18 and enjoy membership for the rest of the current year and the whole of the following year.

Directions to the Hall (SATNAV users enter postcode BS37 9UH):

Situated in the heart of the Conservation Village of Iron Acton in South Gloucestershire, easily accessible from the M4 & M5 Motorways. The village is about 2 miles west of Yate and about 9 miles northeast of the centre of Bristol. The B4058 road used to pass through the village but now by-passes it just to the north.

The Parish Hall lies just off the High Street.

There is a car park at the hall and additional parking available on the street
